How often do you think most high schoolers compare themselves to others?

What's one thing about yourself that you might compare to someone else?

What's one example of something that comparison steals from you?

Read 2 Corinthians 10:12-18

How easy is it for you to believe that God doesn't compare you to others?

If you believed God doesn't compare you to others, what's one thing that might change about the way you see...

- a. Yourself?
- b. God?
- c. Others?

What does it look like practically to guard your heart from comparison?
